Miss Cherie Ann Milheron, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald M. Milheron of 188 Bennoch Street, Oro-Maine, is the first recipient of the Elise R. Hatch Memorial Scholarship for the academic year 1968-69.

In announcing the selection university officials said that Miss Milheron most closely exemplified the traits of leadership, scholastic attainment, values and interests of Miss Hatch who died following an automobile aceldent Sept. 6, 1967, at Orono.

Miss Milheron will receive the earnings from the endowed fund which was established by schoolmates, friends and relatives of Miss Hatch in her memory. The annual income from the award will be given each year to a woman student from Maine following her freshman year at the University of Maine. The Distinguished Maine Scholar Award which Miss Hatch would have received at the U. of M. for the fall of 1967 constituted a part of the Memorlal Fund.

University officials, in announcing the award, pointed out the "uncanny" similarities between Miss Milheron and Miss Hatch, Both were the U. of M.'s 1971 class; both were 2 continued on Page Four Seek beauty and you find it in so many things past and present. It is in the friendly handshake or a happy smile on the face of one you meet. Beauty comes from the sound of music in the heart, the song of a bird, or the rustle of leaves.

At the break of day in the golden dawn beauty is fresh on the greening hills or when the countrysides are white with snow. WANTED - SOUL SEARCHING

With Andover facing an approximale $130,000 Increase In their S. A. D. 44 assessment due to new State valuation figures, together with increased education costs, and Bethel, Greenwood, Newry, and Woodstock slated to be asked for substantially larger amounts than a year age, it would appear to be a suitable time to ask "Where will it end?"

Bethel's increase, estimated at about $42,000, reflects nearly a $5.00 per thousand increase in the local fax rate. The other three towns in the district will possibly have increases of about $21,000 for Greenwood; Newry, $6,200, and Woodstock, With other municipal services to provide, towns will be forced to forego projects that require attention now in order to prevent the tax rate, hopefully, from becoming confiscatory, although in Sethel at least, pital in Norway this past week.
